

Date: 04/10/2013

Name: Kit Fischell

Website URL: <http://www.kitfishell.info/>

Element	Scoring Criteria	Score and Comments
Design (5 points) <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>font is consistent</li><li>readability of font</li><li>clear navigation (including ability to find required elements)</li><li>adequate text-to-background contrast for readability</li><li>thoughtful use of visual elements</li></ul>	5 – all required elements are present and well done 3 - most elements are present but does not meet all criteria 1 – problems in all or most design elements	Score: 5 Clean, professional design. As you know, I think that the Windows 8 inspired design is so clever. What's even cooler is how well you have sustained the aesthetic through your portfolio and how effective it is as your professional home. Navigation is clear, visual elements are VERY effectively integrated (I love, for instance, the addition of the photo and endorsement on your "work" page!). Your portfolio stands out as one of the best I've seen, Kit. Bravo.
Resume (5 points) <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>information is precise and clear, free of errors</li><li>easy to read</li><li>good organization</li><li>formatted for both web viewing and download</li></ul>	5 – all required elements are present and well done 3 – mostly good but does not meet all criteria. 1 – problems in all or most resume elements 0 – resume not posted	Score: 5 Kit – your resume is precise, clear, easy to read, extremely well organized and formatted for both web viewing and download. It's really an example for others to follow.
Coursework Listing (12 points) <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>coursework page is comprehensive and well organized</li></ul>	12 – all required elements present and well done 10– most elements are present, may have issues with design, elements not	Score: 12 I love the organization of your coursework page, Kit. Again, it is so clean, so easy to review, and so thorough in its representation of the work you have accomplished in your

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• includes brief descriptions of course</li> <li>• includes instructor(s)</li> <li>• links to 3 examples of course artifacts.</li> </ul>	displaying properly, organization, or missing elements 5 – several elements missing or done poorly/incompletely 0 – no coursework page	MA program.
Showcase Page(13 points) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• showcase makes a compelling argument for student’s mastery of content/skills</li> <li>• showcase is well organized</li> <li>• showcase makes good use of text and visual elements</li> <li>• artifacts clearly demonstrate student’s knowledge and skills</li> <li>• showcase includes at minimum 5 artifacts</li> </ul>	13 – all required elements present and well done 10– most elements are present, may have issues with design, elements not displaying properly, organization, or missing elements 5 – several elements missing or done poorly/incompletely 0 – no showcase page	Score: 13 This is perhaps my favourite page in your portfolio. The grid structure gives a very real sense that this is a curated collection of your work. You orient my viewing experience by telling me what these pieces of work have meant to you as a learner, but also how they fit together to tell me more about who you have become as a professional who integrates technologies into her teaching. Brilliant, Kit. Absolutely brilliant.
Goals Reflection essay (5 points) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• expressive title</li> <li>• 250-500 words</li> <li>• thoughtful use of additions such as PDF or use of multi-media</li> </ul>	5 – the essay meets or exceeds requirements 3 -- the essay is missing 1-2 required elements 0 – not posted	Score: 5 Great work here, Kit. Thoughtfully revised. Again, I really do feel that placing excerpts opposite your final goal reflection makes for a powerful representation of your growth over the course of the program.

elements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>explains future learning goals</li> <li>reflects on changes since beginning the program</li> <li>well written and well organized</li> </ul>
Future as a Learner essay (5 points) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>addresses issues such as specific future learning goals, resources and/or plans to reach these goals, positions these goals within larger cultural/educational contexts</li> <li>expressive title</li> <li>well written, organized, and interesting</li> <li>750 words minimum</li> </ul>	5 – meets or exceeds the requirements  3--the essay is missing 1-2 required elements  0 – not posted	Score: 5  You have clearly articulated a coherent plan for ongoing growth and leadership in your field, Kit. This essay reads very well. It is engaging and, in your characteristic style, you manage too, to integrate mutli-media effectively in ways that support the thesis of your essay. Bravo.
Synthesis essay (25 points) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>essay is well written</li> <li>expressive title</li> <li>includes in-depth discussions of at least 3 courses</li> </ul>	25 – well written essay with in-depth discussions of at least 3 courses, showing either deep intellectual synthesis or very specific application to teaching	Score: 25  Kit, your synthesis essay meets all of the criteria for the highest possible score. You review more than three courses and make very explicit and specific connections between your learning in your courses and

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>comprehensive discussion of learning gained in the master's program</li> <li>essay is creative, thoughtful, and engaging</li> <li>ideas and quotes are properly credited</li> <li>essay is well organized and well written</li> <li>~2000 words minimum</li> </ul>	practice 20 – same as above but perhaps not as well-written or as deep or detailed 15 – three courses discussed but on a more superficial level without detail or intellectual analysis 10 – shallow or incomplete analysis, fewer than three courses discussed, not well written 0 – not posted	your professional practice. I also especially appreciated reading about how what you have learned in this program has given you the confidence to believe in yourself as an effective educator. It is clear, from this essay, that you have gained much from your work.
	Total Portfolio Score:	70 points
	+ Assignments Score	15
	+ Participation Score	15
	Total Score for Course:	100
	Grade:	4.0

73-77% 2.0    78-82% 2.5    83-88% 3.0    89-93% 3.5    94%+ 4.0

Kit – Congratulations on having completed your MAET degree!!! Your work this semester has been exemplary and it has been a real pleasure to review it. I wish you much success as you continue on your learning journey as a technology leader.

Best,
Michelle